Thinking of Selling Your Home?

1. What is the value of my home?

Having the right "asking price" for your home is critical to selling your home quickly and you receiving the most for your home. I can prepare a free Competitive Market Analysis to help determine the right "asking price" and can give facts on what the market trend is in your neighborhood.

2. Choose an Expert

Few other transactions in your life will have more impact than that of selling or buying a home. I understand that your family's financial security and future is involved. I will help you through the entire process. I will lead and educate you in correctly pricing your home, market trends, negotiating and getting you the most for your home. I am a professional that can apply my knowledge to save you time and money.

3. Do We Really Need To Do It?

I can advise you of possible improvements that will attract more potential buyers and also pay for themselves either through increasing the homes value or through shortening the time it takes to sell the home.
